

Optional Website Pages

Suggested pages include:

- Home - welcome & introduction
- Showcase - completed work
- About Us - your company information
- Services - what services you offer
- Contact Us - phone, fax and email
- Employment - recruitment and openings
- Links - internet links to informative sites
- Privacy & Disclaimer - disclosures
- Testimonials - from current clients or previous clients
- Free Estimate - client quote form
- Next Steps - describe your process
- Who We Are - your companies history
- Certifications - license and accreditations
- Projects - featured examples
- Choosing a Tradesmen - considerations
- Products - what you offer
- Specials - advertise specials
- Design Tips - helpful DIY
- Guarantees - backing of your service

Additional pages can be added to any package, Regardless of the package you choose, every Triplefour Design Trade website is designed from the ground up to be search engine friendly.

This means the site is built using best practices, complies with industry standards and does not include any element that search engines consider unfair or unethical.

Our websites are guaranteed to work on every computer platform, with all major browsers and over even the slowest dial-up connection.